From the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE, Auguſt 15, 1771.

To the PUBLIC.

WE have in the public prints an account of a battle fought between the Militia of North-Carolina, commanded by William Tryon, Eſq; on one part, and a party of men who ſtile themſelves Regulators. The accounts we have of this very unhappy diſturbance, or as the government of that province calls it, of this rebellion, are not ſufficiently particular to enable us at this diſtance to form a juſt opinion of it. We muſt ſuppoſe the Governor judges it expedient to act the part he has taken on the one hand, even to his firing on theſe people, before the expiration of the time he had allowed them for repentance; nor can we imagine, that any body of men compoſed of individuals, varying from each other in principles, civil and * religious, as well as in intereſt, could enter into ſo dangerous an oppoſition to government, unleſs they found themſelves aggrieved, and had reaſon to deſpair of relief from any other quarter. How far ſubjects have a right to complain of public oppreſſion, and inſiſt on having grievances redreſſed, is at this day well underſtood. The deſign of government is acknowledged to be the good of the people. Its ſtrength and happineſs depends more on the mildneſs and equity of the adminiſtration, than on any particular form: Nay, we have many inſtances in which bad rulers have availed themſelves of ſuch eſtabliſhments as ſeemed to inſure happineſs to the people, and ſtability, to perpetrate impoſitions and cruelties, which would not have been borne but for a confidence in the laws, and an attachment to the form. As to the affair in Carolina, it is underſtood but by few. As humanity intereſts every tender heart in the diſtreſs of fellow creatures, and a field of battle, covered over with the garments of fellow citizens rolled in blood, is an unuſual ſcene to us, the following extracts from ſome of the public papers, may not be unacceptable; they may at leaſt ſerve to give us ſome idea of what thoſe unhappy people felt.

The diſturbances appear to have originated in the county of Granville; to have extended ſome time after to Halifax, &c. and at laſt to Orange. In Granville they ſay, "It is not our "form of government or body of laws we quarrel with, but "the mal-practices of the Officers of our County Courts, and "the abuſes we ſuffer by thoſe who are impowered to manage "our public affairs---and the notorious and intolerable abuſes "that have crept into the practice of the law, &c." And with regard to their meaſures they proceed thus; "Let us be careful "to keep ſober, do nothing raſhly, but act with deliberation: "Let us do nothing againſt the known laws of the land, that "we appear not in a faction, endeavouring to ſubvert the laws, "and overturn the ſyſtem of government; but let us take care "to appear what really we are, free ſubjects by birth, endeavouring to recover our loſt native rights, by reducing the mal-"practices of the Officers of our Courts down to the ſtandard of "law." Thus they ſpoke. The meaſure they appear to have taken was by petition to the Legiſlature. The unfortunate ſigners of the petition were ſued by the Officers for a libel. The writer of the paper from which the above extracts are made was impriſoned. And though the petition ſeems to have been publiſhed in June 1768, yet the voracious ſuits remained undetermined in 1770.---From Granville theſe diſcontents, occaſioned by theſe mal-practices, ſpread into Brunſwick, Cumberland, and other counties; and ſo general had the abuſes and diſcontents become, that in ſeveral counties they refuſed to pay the taxes in 1766 (the complaints and meaſures of one county being unknown in another) before Orange County, the preſent ſcene of blood, began to move. As to the tranſactions of this county, we find them expreſſing themſelves thus in a paper read at one of their public Courts of the county. After ſpeaking of Officers carrying on unjuſt oppreſſions, &c. "As there are many evils of this "nature complained of in this county of Orange in private "amongſt the inhabitants, therefore let us remove them: Or if "there is no cauſe, let us remove the jealouſies out of our minds. "Honeſt rulers in power will be glad to ſee us examine this matter freely." Their propoſed procedure for enquiry is, "Let "each neighbourhood throughout the county meet together, and "appoint one or more men to meet together at a ſuitable place, "where there is no ſtrong liquor, at which meeting let it be judiciouſly enquired into, whether the freemen of this county "labour under any abuſes of power or not, and let the ſame be "notified in writing." In conſequence of this notification, at a joint meeting of deputies from ſeveral neighbourhoods, they iſſued the following. "At a general meeting, &c. Auguſt 20, "1766, to examine if the freemen of this county labour under "any abuſes of power, and to examine into the public taxes, "by what laws, and for what uſe they are laid; and in order "to remove jealouſies out of our minds, the Repreſentatives, "Veſtrymen and other Officers, are requeſted to give the members of ſaid meeting what information they can, ſo far as they "value the good will of every freeholder, and the execution of "public office pleaſant and delightful." They met again for this purpoſe, but were not favoured with the company of any one Officer. On this they drew up a paper, propoſing a yearly conference of the freeholders from the different parts of that extenſive county, to conſider the matters aforeſaid, and agree in the choice of Repreſentatives. In this paper we find the following paragraph refering to the Officers, Lawyers, &c. "If they "hereafter are inclinable to anſwer our requeſt (of a general "conference and enquiry) we will attend them at ſome other "time and place, on their giving us proper notice."---April 4, 1768, they ſay, "We will attend our meetings of conference as "often as is neceſſary and convenient, to conſult our Repreſentatives on the amendment of ſuch laws as ſhall be found grievous; to chuſe more ſuitable men than we have heretofore "for Burgeſſes and Veſtrymen; and to petition the Houſe of "Aſſembly, Governor and Council, King and Parliament, for "the redreſs of grievances; and to inform one another, learn, "know and enjoy all the privileges, &c. that were ſettled on "us by our worthy anceſtors, the founders of our preſent conſtitution, to preſerve it on its ancient foundation."

At length it appears, theſe unhappy diſtreſſed men were flattered with a proſpect of a conference between their oppreſſors and ſome of their own body, choſen to manage the affair in their behalf. They were notified, that the officers had fixed on May 11th to meet them for this purpoſe, in conſequence of the following paper. "April 4th, At a general meeting of the Re"gulators, it was agreed to ſend P. C. and J. L. to requeſt the "two late Sheriffs and our Veſtrymen, to meet twelve men that "we ſhould chuſe on Tueſday next after Court, to produce to "them a copy of the liſt of taxables, and of the names of the inſolvents returned, &c. and to requeſt our Repreſentatives to "confer with them in our behalf, and ſhew us law for the cuſtomary fees that had been taken, &c.---Before theſe men had "time to perform this meſſage, the officers, by way of diſtreſs, "took a mare, ſaddle and bridle, for one levy, viz. Seven "Shillings, at the rate of Eight Shillings to a Dollar. The mare "was reſcued, and a few guns fired at the roof of Col. Fanning's houſe, to ſignify they blamed him for this abuſe." However pleaſing their hopes might be from the promiſed conference, they were of but ſhort continuance, the Governor iſſued a proclamation, ordering all rioters to diſperſe, and two perſons were apprehended. However, grievous as it was to be denied the privilege of canvaſſing public grievances, and meeting in conference with their oppreſſors; and although upwards of 700 armed men were aſſembled at this time from a circuit of 40 miles, to prevent theſe two from being carried to Newbern (200 miles) one of whom had not been concerned in the regulation; yet, upon the Secretary's ſubjoining to the proclamation, a verbal meſſage from the Governor, "That if they would petition the "Governor, he would proteſt and redreſs them againſt any un"lawful extortions and oppreſſions of any Officer in the coun"try; provided they would diſperſe, and go home." No ſooner was the joyful meſſage received, than with one voice they all cried out, "Agreed! That is all we want; liberty to make our grievances known." They accordingly returned home; adverti'ed the agreement with the Governor, and called a general meeting to be on the 21ſt of May; at which meeting they came to the following concluſion.

"It was unanimouſly agreed to continue our petition, agreed "on laſt meeting, to the Governor, Council and Aſſembly, for "redreſſing every grievous, cruel, iniquitous and oppreſſive "practice of our Officers; which, we generally conceive, we "have laboured under, for theſe many years, contrary to law.

"And, in purſuance of a verbal meſſage from the Governor, "ſent expreſsly by his Secretary, delivered us on the 3d of this "inſtant, we agree to renew our ſaid petition. And as ſundry "forms have been read here this day, and ſigned by ſundry "neighbourhoods, we appoint W M, W C, H C, J L, J M, J H, "R H, and G H, to form one out of the whole, refering to "the ſeveral complaints for information of grievances. And "being conſcious of our loyalty to King George the Third, on "the preſent throne, and our firm attachment to the preſent "eſtabliſhment and form of government; which we ſincerely "believe all our grievances are quite oppoſite and contrary to, "by downright roguiſh practices of men, who have crept into "poſts of office, and have practiſed upon our ignorance and "new ſettled ſituation.

"We, therefore, order the above Committee to implore the "Governor's pardon and forgiveneſs, in the moſt ſubmiſſive manner, for any errors that we may have commited, that is, or "may be conſtrued to derogate from the honour of his Majeſty's "crown and dignity, or tending to obſtruct the peace and good "order of government.

"And for the Governor's better information, we order the "Committee to prepare copies of all our proceedings, which "was agreed on by our body, even from the firſt beginning, to "go with our ſaid petition, and a ſuitable number of the ſaid "Committee to wait on the Governor with them, as ſoon as "poſſible †.

"And as we have received a letter from Anſon county, in"forming us of an aſſociation there on the ſame account, and "requeſting information of our manner of proceeding, we order "a copy of this to be ſent to them immediately, to prevent "ſpeedily their running into any errors. We believe their ſcru"ples to be well grounded, and their intentions honeſt."

To this the Governor replied, that "their ſteps, carried but a "little further, would have been called, and muſt have been "treated as High Treaſon." He commended to them Colonel Fanning and his Officers conduct as diſcreet; and taxed them---"as actuated by cowardice, and as having, from a ſenſe of that "public juſtice due to their crimes, abſconded themſelves from "public view;" and made it a term "of any further clemency" on his part, "that they deſiſt from any future meetings, and "that all titles of Regulators or Aſſociators ceaſe from among "them." Notwithſtanding the Governor ordered them to deſiſt from future meetings, yet as the Sheriff was up to collect the taxes, and they had offered this very matter of the taxes and ſettlement of the public accounts to the Legiſlature, and were hoping for relief; they ventured again to hold another meeting to conſider of an anſwer to the Governor's letter. This they forwarded to him by two of their number, who found him raiſing the Militia, with 3 days proviſions, and 9 charges.----However, on the 17th of Auguſt, they ventured to meet again, in conſequence of an appointment from his Excellency, that on that day the Sheriffs ſhould attend with their accounts, and render public ſatisfaction: Inſtead of which, they were once again ſurpriſed with another letter from him, "requiring peremptorily at leaſt 12 "of their principals, and thoſe of the firſt property," to wait on him, and give bond, £. 1000 each, that no reſcue ſhould be made of the two perſons under recognizance, to appear at next Court. This they declined, and for theſe reaſons, that the report of the Governor's intention to cut off the people had taken ſuch entire poſſeſſion of the minds of the generality, that the few more deliberate and ſenſible had been obliged to exert all their influence, in any meaſure to moderate their paſſions, and keep them to a rational and legal mode of proſecuting a redreſs of public grievances. That theſe of courſe might be deemed principals; and that ſhould ſuch a number of principal conſiderate men give into ſaid meaſure, it would tend to leſſen their weight with the enraged multitude, and throw all into confuſion. The Governor having told theſe people in the ſame meſſage, that he thought it his duty to provide for the ſafety of government, and having put himſelf at the head of a military force, &c. on the day of the Court, about 3700 Regulators appeared within a mile of the town, armed and unarmed, determined not to act unleſs a maſſacre, as they termed it, ſhould be attempted; and if their terms were not accepted by the Governor and Council, to return home, and leave the Governor to fight the air. From this place they propoſed to the Governor, that if he would let them come peaceably into town to complain of their Officers, and pardon all paſt breaches of the peace, except the two under bail, they would pay their levies, &c. But he inſiſted they ſhould all deliver up their guns; on which they returned home, except a few who were arreſted by the Civil Officers, and preſented to the Grand Jury for riots, who returned the bill Ignoramus. However, at this Court, there were four preſentments againſt Hermon Huſbands (one of the two under recognizance.) Three of the bills were thrown out by the Grand Jury; the other being a preſentment for a riot, was returned a true bill; but by the Petit Jury he was acquitted; (this indictment was at the inſtance of Col. Fanning, who, during Huſbands's impriſonment, and before he was admitted to bail, exacted the following promiſes, viz. "You promiſe never to give your opi"nion of the laws, nor frequent aſſembling yourſelf amongſt "people, nor ſhew any jealouſies of the Officers taking extor"tionary fees: And if you hear any others ſpeaking diſreſpect"fully, or hinting any jealouſies, of that nature, of Officers; "that you will reprove and caution them, and that you will tell "the people, you are ſatisfied, all the taxes are agreeable to law;" not, however, without having ſuffered grievouſly; being confined in a ſmall goal, with a new erected gallows over his head, which he was told was erected for him; inſulted in the ſtreets, dragged into a public-houſe, ſet upon a table, ſurrounded by the ſoldiers, and bayonets thruſt at his breaſt; his neighbours and evidences frightened, nay ordered out of town; and none of his fellow-complainants ſuffered to come in. One Lawyer indeed he could procure, to whom he gave all the money he had, and bonds and notes for £. 150 more, to appear for him in the action of a riot. But being threatened with a more capital proſecution, he applies again to the Lawyers, and gave them what notes and bonds they pleaſed to write, as a retaining fee. At the next Superior Court they demanded payment of theſe obligations, and have ſince put them in ſuit. Not ſuch was the caſe of Col. Edmund Fanning, the Governor's diſcreet Officer, who was brought on his trial upon ſeven different indictments for extortion: To one he pleads guilty, and was found guilty by the Juries in the other ſix, and for each fined by the Court One Penny. Notwithſtanding this diſcouragement, they carried on their proſecutions at the next Superior Court in 1769, but were leſs ſucceſsful; † though upon the matter of taxes being laid before the Aſſembly, it was reſolved that 3ſ per taxable of the public tax was wrong, as it had been levied by the Officers. At the next Court, however, no troops being raiſed by government, and all the Officers continuing to take the ſame extortionary fees as before, except Fanning, the people flocked in to make information; and notwithſtanding the difficulty of attending Courts 60 miles from home, and the threats of the Officers to ſue for malicious proſecutions, &c. and though the Attorney did not attend the two or three firſt days, ſo that many were diſcouraged, and went home, yet ſome trials were brought on, and the Officers convicted in every caſe but one, in which he immediately ſued the complainant.

Being thus harraſſed, and diſcouraged even by their ſucceſs at law, their only hopes were from the Aſſembly, but the houſe was diſſolved before they could compleat much buſineſs of conſequence; and things were left in confuſion and diſorder. Had the Governor given his aſſent to a bill the houſe had prepared, for a ſingle juſtice of the peace to try £. 5 cauſes, and for laying greater penalties on Lawyers, &c. for extortion; (inſtead of leaving it in the breaſt of a court to fine only one penny for reiterated extortions) and for explaining the fee bill, &c. it might have ſet aſide the plea theſe unhappy people now avail themſelves of.

From the foregoing, which is the ſubſtance of their publications, ſome idea may be formed of the ſituation, temper, and intentions of thoſe people. They muſt appear to have been an illiterate, injured multitude, ſtruggling againſt all the weight, influence, and artifices of their oppreſſors; without any one advantage, except what they derive from the juſtneſs of their cauſe. Their ſituation, at a diſtance from the ſeat of government and juſtice; the juriſdiction of the County Courts being, beyond any precedent, very limited; appeals to the Superior Courts for ſmall crimes encouraged; law proceedings inſupportable, becauſe of undue practices, and heavy extortions; Juries choſen by the Court; a Grand Jury compoſed of five old Sheriffs, all the reſt except three being, as they ſay, limbs of the law, againſt whom their complaints lay; a Governor who had denied them any hopes of future clemency; and their laſt reſource, the Aſſembly, haſtily diſſolved; £. 30,000 raiſed by taxes more than propoſed by law, while £. 60,000 was ſtill current among them, and to be ſunk: I ſay ſuch a ſituation is truly melancholy, and muſt juſtify every legal and rational mode of proſecuting an enquiry and redreſs. Whether they were happy in the expedient they uſed; whether they could have been expected to do better; whether they were not objects of tender compaſſion, rather than of unrelenting vengeance, muſt be determined by every man for himſelf. Blood has now been ſhed on both ſides. Government ever has it in its power to give plauſible pretences, and clothe impoſitions and cruelties under the mantle of law and clemency: Reaſon and law are inclined to ſupport the ſtrongeſt party. Theſe people may alſo be unfair in their repreſentation, and unreaſonable in their complaints; but it muſt be remembered they knew they were contending againſt the halter, forfeitures, and every thing that man can dread. What is here offered muſt be ſubmitted. It was thought hard that the government accounts only ſhould be in the view of an impartial public, which has been anxious to hear what have been the complaints and conduct of this unhappy people. If there are any untruths or miſrepreſentations, the leaſt misfortune ariſing from it is to us; they have deceived themſelves to their own ruin. However, like many other cauſes which cannot be decided by venal and corrupt adminiſtration of law, or the ſulſome adulation of Court ſycophants on one hand, nor by inſurrection and oppoſition on the other, this muſt be referred for a final deciſion to a ſuperior tribunal;---to the ſelf-condemning conſciences of the guilty, and to an avenging God.

* That they ſay of themſelves. "The Governor repreſented us as a "faction of Quakers and Baptiſts, who aimed to overſet the Church "of England, &c. This put us upon viewing ourſelves, and we "found our body to conſiſt promiſcuouſly of all ſects, and the men we "put moſt confidence in were of the Church of England communion." Then 'tis the more extraordinary, that the men they put moſt confidence in, or the principals of the Regulators, ſhould be members of the Church of England, as a very great majority of the people are Diſſenters; and as the ſtaff-bearers of Epiſcopacy is ſaid to have been one of their cauſes of complaint. It proves however, that the laity of the Church of England in that province, are determinately oppoſed to the eſtabliſhment of a ſpiritual as well as civil tyranny in the colonies.

† Among the papers ſhewn to the Governor, was the following reſolution, viz.---"If the Governor is yet againſt us, and we can "get no redreſs no way, we will, rather than riſe in riots, agree "not to go to law at all, but leave our differences to arbitration. "At this paper the Governor ſhew in a paſſion, and ordered the "bearer to burn it."

LANDS FOR SALE,

By public outcry, at the vendue-houſe in Charles-Town, on Thurſday the 3d day of October next, at 12 o'clock,

A Tract on ACCABEE, one of the moſt beautifully ſituated country ſeats in this province, not more than ſeven miles from Charles-Town by land, and about the ſame diſtance by water. The whole contains four hundred acres, three hundred of which are in oak and pine wood, the reſt in paſture under fence. The dwelling-houſe on it is of brick, with a large hall and parlour on the ground floor, and a paſſage and ſtairs in an entry between both; there are four bed-chambers above them, excluſive of the garret which has two unfiniſhed rooms. The cellar is very convenient for a kitchen, being built and uſed for that purpoſe. On the ſouth front of the houſe is a new piazza, which overlooks an unimproved garden quite down to the delightful river on which the whole is ſituated. Oppoſite to the houſe and garden, the river is computed to be upwards of a mile wide, and abounds with a variety of fiſh, oyſters, &c. As there is plenty of wood, bricks may be made to advantage, and the number now at the landing will be a ſufficient recommendation of the quality of the clay, &c. Vaſt quantities of lime may likewiſe be burnt, the ſhell banks being very contigious to the landings, and the wood not far to cart.

A Tract at STONO, St. Paul's pariſh, butting and bounding, eaſtward and ſouthward on lands belonging to the eſtate of the late Robert McKewn, Eſq; and lands of James Stanyarne, Eſq; weſtward and northward on lands of Mr. Iſaac Nichols, deceaſed, and Algernon Wilſon, Eſq.

This Tract contains four hundred acres, and is principally adapted for the culture of indico, corn, &c. the ſoil being looſe and fertile, it will alſo anſwer for moſt European grain; about ſeventy acres has been cleared, and a tolerable plantation houſe on it, but being rented out to ſeveral tenants, ſhoemakers, &c. it has been much abuſed, and at preſent is out of repair. It is well timbered with oak and pine, and its diſtance from the public landing at Friend Town, ſcarce exceeds two miles.

Another Tract at STONO, about a mile nearer the public landing than the above, containing by a re-ſurvey three hundred and ſeventy-five acres, butting and bounding north-eaſtwardly on land belonging to William Elliott, Eſq; (called Winners;) north-weſtwardly on land belonging to the eſtate of Robert McKewn, Eſq; ſouth-eaſtwardly on lands belonging to Frederick Grimke, Eſq; and ſouth-weſtwardly on lands belonging to Charles Elliott, Eſq. This is a very compact tract, fit for indico, corn and rice; a great part of this ſmall tract is in wood of oak, hickory, and pine, and affords good cooper ſtuff for any of the adjacent rice plantations. On it is a pretty good dwelling houſe, now rented to Mr. Joſeph Dandridge.

A long credit will be given, if deſired, paying intereſt from the delivery of the titles.
